THE RISKS OF NON-COMPLIANCE

Organizational Risk

- Irreversible damage to a company's reputation and loss of patients' trust.

- A standard HIPAA violation costs up to $50,000 per incident of non-compliance and $1.5 million per year.

Personal Risk

- Employees found in violation risk disciplinary action as well as criminal penalties, up to 10 years in prison, and personal fines up to $250,000.

The number one cause of a breach in the healthcare industry is simply human error.

The costs associated with a HIPAA breach can add up quickly. Many of the largest fines issued as a result of a HIPAA violation were associated with organizations that failed to address their vulnerabilities. With our cybersecurity services we take a holistic approach to protecting your critical infrastructure by addressing your people, processes and technology. Invest in cybersecurity today and let TechGuard address your vulnerabilities before you fall victim to an attack.
